M E S S A G E

It gives me immense pleasure to see the report 'Crime in India' for the year 2009 being brought out by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB). This is an annual publication presenting detailed information on various aspects of crime and criminal administration in the country.

Crime is an area of increasing concern not only in our country but globally. The effect of crime may be varied in nature. Criminals are constantly adopting new techniques and methodology and are developing new networks that transcend national boundaries. This is a challenge for the law enforcement agencies, policy makers, social scientists and other stakeholders of the criminal justice system. Detailed information on various aspects of crime are needed to properly analyse the phenomena and plan effective preventive and other intervention strategies. This annual publication of NCRB aims to fulfill the data requirements of various stakeholders. It is the principal reference for crime statistics in India.

I will urge the State Government and UT Administrations and Heads of various law enforcement agencies to send data pertaining to year 2010 to NCRB by the month of May next year so that the report for the year 2010 may be brought out by June 2011.

FOREWORD

'Crime in India' is an annual publication of the National Crime Records Bureau. This publication contains detailed statistical information on the crime scenario of the country. The present edition pertains to the year 2009 and is 57th in the series which started in the year 1953.

Crime is an integral part of human society and information on different aspects of crimes and criminals is required to analyse the trends and design effective intervention strategies to prevent and combat crime in the society. This annual publication of NCRB meets this requirement of policy makers, police personnel, media, researchers, NGOs and other stakeholders of criminal justice system. The information has been presented in different chapters with a view to facilitate easy reference of relevant data. With its detailed information contents, this publication has been the principal reference document on the concerned subjects. The information contained in the publication has been found particularly useful in preparing replies to Parliament Questions relating to various Ministries.

In order to cater to the requirements of the users of our data in a better manner, we have digitised all the previous editions of the publication and made them available on our website <http://ncrb.gov.in>. I hope this initiative will be of immense help to our data users.

I am grateful to the heads of Police of all States and UTs for their cooperation in sending the requisite data to NCRB. It has been our constant endeavour to bring out the report within the shortest possible time after the end of the reference year so that the data is available at the earliest to the various stakeholders. I, therefore, request heads of all the States and UTs to take personal interest and kindly ensure that the data relating to the year 2010 is sent to NCRB by May 2011 so that the 2010 edition of the publication may be brought out by June 2011.

I take this opportunity to record my appreciation of the hard work done by the officers and staff of the Statistical Branch of the Bureau in collecting and compiling the data and bringing out this report.

I would appreciate if the readers could kindly send their valuable suggestions to us in the feedback form attached at the end of this report to further improve the content and quality of the publication.
