Message

I am pleased to learn that the annual publication of the National Crime Records Bureau, 'Crime in India 2013', is being released in June 2014, as scheduled. It is an important achievement for us and I take this opportunity to congratulate the Director General NCRB and his team of officers for this achievement. 'Crime in India' publication is an important report which provides useful and comprehensive statistics on crime in the country.

NCRB has taken a lot of initiatives to revise the proforma of 'Crime in India' and I hope that the data for the next year will be collected in the revised format.

The rising trend of crimes is a worrying factor for everyone. Crimes against women, children and the weaker sections of the society, are of great concern for all of us. Crime leaves deep scars in the society; therefore, we need to study the causes, patterns and nature of crimes, to find out the reasons and remedies. Such a study will help us to evolve measures and policy interventions to contain them.

'Crime in India' publication is a vital tool in the hands of researchers, criminologists and officials of criminal justice system in the country, as it provides ample statistical data to conduct and evaluate the ground reality and the trends, with geo-political ramifications.

I convey my gratitude to all the State and UT police departments for supplying the crime data to NCRB within the time schedule. I urge the Law Enforcement Agencies of the State Governments / UT Administrations to send validated and consistent data pertaining to the year 2014 as well in the revised proforma to NCRB by the end of February, 2015, so that the next edition of the report may be published by April, 2015.

Foreword

It is quite gratifying to present the 61st volume of 'Crime in India' report pertaining to the year 2013. 'Crime in India', published annually by National Crime Records Bureau, since 1953, is a principal reference document on crime scenario of our country.

The data for the report is being collected through 22 sets of proformae from SCRBx of all States/UTs and 53 Mega Cities (City having population of 10 lakh or more). The report is being brought out in two parts viz. 'Crime in India (Compendium)' and 'Crime in India (Statistics)', which has been divided into 19 different chapters on the basis of various heads and aspects of crime and criminal administration. The first part contains the descriptive portion and analysis along with some data presented in tables, graphs and maps. The tables containing voluminous and detailed data have been presented in the second part. Efforts have been made to improve the coverage, content and presentation of annual crime data.

The publication contains comprehensive information on trends and patterns of crime, reported by our State Police. The incidents of crimes are broadly categorized as 'Executive Summery on IPC and SLL crimes', 'Crimes in Mega City', 'Crime against Body', 'Crime against Property', 'Crime against Women', 'Crime against Children', 'Juveniles in conflict with law', 'Custodial Crimes' 'Crime against SCs/STs by non SCs/STs', 'Cyber Crime', 'Crime in Railways', etc. with basic purpose to meet the ever growing diversified range of information requirement.

I hope this publication would be found useful by the Policy Makers, Administrators, Crime Analysts, Criminologists, Researchers, Media, NGOs, the General Public and different Government Departments.

Considering plethora of data requirement, we have digitised all the previous editions of the publication and made these available on our website <http://ncrb.gov.in> Nevertheless, historical data of the different reports has also been uploaded on national data portal <http://data.gov.in>.

Presently the development of new software for revised proformae of Crime in India is underway, and we are confident, that data for the next year publication will be obtained and made available on digitised and revised format.

I gratefully acknowledge the cooperation extended by Heads of all the State and UT Police Departments and State Crime Records Bureaux, and am indebted to them for their efforts in extending support to NCRB to bring out this publication ‘within the stipulated timeline’, as non-availability of data from even a single State/UT/City can hold up the whole process of finalisation of the report at the national level.

I also commend the efforts of the officers and staff of Statistical Branch of the Bureau, who have worked tirelessly to bring out this report well before target date of 30th June, 2014. This is an important landmark for all of us, and we are proud of this their achievement.

We would be obliged, if the users of this volume, could kindly send their suggestions to us in the feedback form attached at the end of this report, to further improve the content and quality of the publication.
